RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY Cuvée Alana Pinot Noir

Named for Bill's youngest daughter, the Cuvée Alana Pinot Noir is the most recent addition to our Cuvée Series. Located on a steep hillside near the quaint town of Occidental, this tiny vineyard is surrounded by towering pine and redwood trees. The cold, coastal environment is perfect for growing exceptional pinot noir, slowing down the development of sugars and acid to ensure the grapes mature at a slow, steady rate. Bottle aged for an additional six months, this follow up release to the inaugural 2018 vintage is characterized by its rich core with a burst of bright acidity. Aromas of black cherry and hints of allspice greet the palate, while a deep ruby color shines from the glass - ultimately leading to a long, luxurious finish.

We believe in stewardship of the land, the vineyards, and the people. We are for real connections, real history, real wines; experiences you will never forget. We welcome you to our home, the Adobe, for a historic tasting in Sonoma.
