DURELL VINEYARD

Sonoma Coast Chardonnay

Durell Vineyard plays an important role in California's wine history, having produced more than 1,000 wines exceeding 90 points throughout its 45-year legacy. Initially known for chardonnay, it is easy to grasp what the praise is about after tasting wines from this remarkable site. Spanning three unique appellations -Sonoma Valley, Sonoma Coast, and Carneros- this site is a gold mine of varied microclimates and topographical diversity, showcasing the best of what Sonoma has to offer. This year's bottling is rich and luxurious on the palate with flavors of peach, white nectarine, Marcona almonds, and lemon meringue. Durell Vineyard Chardonnay continues its legacy as sunshine in a glass with this fresh, opulent bottling.

We believe in stewardship of the land, the vineyards, and the people. We are for real connections, real history, real wines; experiences you will never forget. We welcome you to our home, the Adobe, for an historic tasting in Sonoma.
