WILLIAM JAMES VINEYARD
PINOT NOIR

2021

PINOT NOIR

Planted in 2013 in what we call the fertile crescent of the Russian River Valley, in a perfectly uniform, rectangular vineyard with the sexiest soil you have ever seen, the William James Vineyard is a 6.5-acre powerhouse for pinot noir. William James has grown in an area known for its agricultural roots. This particular Monopole vineyard is surrounded by farmlands, including the famous Gravenstein apple orchards. A wine lover's dream. Named after Bill's first and only son, James, known for his wit, boundless energy, and playfulness, which is utterly contagious. We believe this vintage is James to a tee. Vibrant notes of cherry, raspberry, and sage will bring a smile to your face, while a smooth, elegant finish will compel you to share it with others. If you could bottle joy, this is what it would taste like.
