WILLIAM JAMES VINEYARD Sonoma Coast Pinot Noir

Perched on a sloping hilltop, surrounded by apple orchards west of Sebastopol, the William James Vineyard is a sanctuary for pinot noir. With fine Goldridge soil, famous in this cooler portion of the Russian River Valley AVA, the William James develops a rich texture with expressive spiciness and raspberry coulis. The winds whip through this area daily, bringing cool fog that shuts the vines down, elongating the growing season ensuring the fruit is flourishing by harvest. This vineyard is the newest addition to our Price Family Estates portfolio, and we are extremely impressed with the quality of fruit and the expressive wine it produces. The 2018 is a perfect representation of what Bill and our team wanted out of this Russian River site.

We believe in stewardship of the land, the vineyards, and the people. We are for real connections, real history, real wines; experiences you will never forget. We welcome you to our home, the Adobe, for an historic tasting in Sonoma.
