ALANA VINEYARD

Russian River Valley Chardonnay

The small and precious five acre Alana Vineyard maintains a near perfect climate for grape growing. Winding valleys keep the fog hovering late and temperatures low, while the sun peeks through in the afternoon to warm up the vines before the cool evenings return. Made from a heritage Wente clone that produces tiny clusters with intense concentration, our new vineyard-designated Chardonnay has wonderful notes of lemon meringue, grilled pineapple and fresh baked bread. The palate sings with rich toffee and vanilla bean while showing beautiful acidity that keeps the finish fresh and lingering. The Alana Vineyard is small but mighty and produces grapes of distinction.

We believe in stewardship of the land, the vineyards, and the people. We are for real connections, real history, real wines; experiences you will never forget. We welcome you to our home, the Adobe, for an historic tasting in Sonoma.
