Russian River Valley Pinot Noir

Our Russian River Valley Pinot Noir comes from the cooler areas of Sebastopol and Occidental in an area known as “West County”. Afternoon fog and Pacific Ocean winds act as nature’s air conditioner, rapidly cooling the warm mid-day temperatures, and creating a Pinot Noir haven. The climate shift allows the grapes to shut down earlier in the day and retain their acids. This is a hallmark of this wine region and lends to a more balanced and bright version of Pinot Noir. With a core of red cherry, it’s characterized by light cedar box and cranberry. The palate is velvety with a finish that continues long after the final sip. Enjoy this cool climate Russian River Valley Pinot Noir!

We believe in stewardship of the land, the vineyards, and the people. We are for real connections, real history, real wines; experiences you will never forget. We welcome you to our home, the Adobe, for an historic tasting in Sonoma.
